Once again it is time to prepare for the North American Select Sale, November 17, 2008 in Louisville, KY at 5pm in Newmarket Hall.

Please pay special attention to the information below.

All sale cattle must be entered in the North American shows whether they show or not. All sale cattle must be entered by DP Sale Management in the North American. Please send the original completed entry form for the North American Livestock Exposition along with your sale nomination form and entry fee of $150.00 per head. Included in this total is nomination fee of $100.00 per lot, show entries $50.00. In the SimAngus/Simsolution show all percentage cattle in the sale will also have to be entered in the show. The same entry fees apply to the percentage cattle. DP Sale Management will send your sale entries only to the North American. If you have other cattle you wish to show you will have to enter them separately. DP Sale Management will not be responsible for parking passes, exhibitor passes or chute permits. You can go online to www.livestockexpo.org and download a form to order passes, chute permits. Your cattle will not be entered in the sale unless we have entry fees and nomination fees by deadline. Deadline to return your information to DP Sale Management is September 1, 2008. You can go online to www.parkelivestock.com and fill out entries form for this sale or print off a form and send it in along with all fees.
